

Conference

Covid, Crisis, Care and Change?

18th & 19th March 2021
TU Dresden, Germany

Programme

Thursday, 18th March 2021

9.00 a.m.

Antonia Kupfer, Constanze Stutz (TU Dresden)
An introduction

I. Session: Production, labour and professions

9.30 – 10.00 a.m.

Ann-Christin Bächmann, Gundula Zoch (Leibniz Institute for Educational Trajectories, Bamberg) and Basha Vicari (Institute for Employment Research, Nuremberg)
Gender inequalities in working conditions and well-being during the COVID-19 pandemic in Germany

10.00 – 10.30 a.m.

Michaela Maria Hintermayr (Vienna)
Tears and a racing heart: Covid-19 and Mental Health in the Nursing Professions

BREAK (15 min)

10.45 – 11.15 a.m.

Veronika Prieler (Johannes Kepler University Linz) and Martina Sekulová (Slovak Academy of Sciences, Bratislava)
Confronted with COVID-19: Migrant live-in care during the pandemic

11.15 – 11.45 a.m.

Karin Sardadvar (Vienna University of Economics and Business)
Cleaning work: System-relevant, invisible, exposed

11.45 – 12.15 p.m.

Elena V. Buck, Yvonne Franke, Stephan Schlosser and Ulrike Thiele-Manjali (University of Goettingen)
Care, Career, Corona: Gender relations in academia under the burning glass of the pandemic

BREAK (1 hour)

1.15 – 1.45 p.m.

Frauke Grenz (University Flensburg)

Relevant to which System? The Re_Production of Power Relations during the Debate about “System-Relevant” Professions from a Discourse Analytical Perspective

1.45 – 2.15 p.m.

Daria Dudley

Is social work a profession with no “systemic relevance” in Germany? Evaluation of pandemic-related amendments

Subsequent session discussion till 2.45 p.m.

BREAK (1 hour)

3.45 – 4.15 p.m.

Loren Britton and Pinar Tuzcu (University Kassel)

Witnessing Fabrics: Face masks during the Covid-19 Pandemic

II. Session: Reproduction and Care

4.15 – 4.45 p.m.

Céline Miani, Lisa Wandschneider, Stephanie Batram-Zantvoort and Oliver Razum (University Bielefeld)
Covid-19 pandemic: A gender perspective on how lockdown measures have affected mothers with young children

4.45 – 5.15 p.m.

Caterina Rohde-Abuba (World Vision Germany e.V.)

Children as actors of family care during the Covid-19 pandemic

End of the first day at 5.15 p.m.

Friday, 19th March 2021

9 a.m.

Welcoming Back

9.15 – 9.45 a.m.

Kristin Schlappa (TU Dresden)

Can we assume a sustained retraditionalisation of gender relations, the strengthening of family structures and the manifestation of gender hierarchies in the family?

9.45 – 10.15 a.m.

Eman Nahhas and Khawla Zoabi (The Academic Arab College for Education in Israel)

Uncovering the Burden of the Women's Multiple Roles at Home during the COVID-19's Lockdowns: The Case of Arab Female Students in Israel

10.15 – 10.45 a.m.

Rikela Fusha (University of Medicine, Tirana)

Covid-19 case: Public health literacy in an adult sample of the Albanian population

BREAK (15 min)

11 – 11.30 a.m.

Sayendri Panchadhyayi (Presidency University, Kolkata)

Cartographies of Caring: Time, Temporality and Caring in pandemic

Subsequent session discussion till 12 p.m.

BREAK (1 hour)

III. Session: State regulations

1 – 1.30 p.m.

Ania Plomien (London School of Economics), Alexandra Scheele (University Bielefeld) and Martina Sproll (Berlin School of Economics and Law)

Transnational social reproduction and state responses to the Covid-19 pandemic: keeping capitalism on the move?

1.30 – 2 p.m.

Gundula Ludwig (University Bremen)

The gendered architecture of the state in times of the covid-19-pandemic

2 – 2.30 p.m.

Ayse Dursun, Verena Kettner, Birgit Sauer (University Vienna)

Corona and Care: Gender-critical Perspectives on Governing the COVID-19 Crisis in Austria

BREAK (30 min)

Subsequent Session discussion till 3.30 p.m.

IV. Session: Directions of feminist transformations

3.30 – 4 p.m.

Bianca Sola Claudio (University of Cologne)

Time for caring in quarantine: The democratic value of spending and wasting time together

4 – 4.30 p.m.

Erella Shadmi (Beit Berl Academic College Israel)

You Need a Crash to Make A Shift Happening: The Maternal Gift Economy and Matriarchal Communalism Possibilities

Discussion till 5.15 p.m. and conference closing

Organization

Prof. Dr. Antonia Kupfer, Professor of Macrosociology, Institute of Sociology, TU Dresden

antonia.kupfer@tu-dresden.de

Constanze Stutz, M.A., Lecturer at the Chair of Macrosociology, Institute of Sociology, TU Dresden

constanze.stutz@tu-dresden.de

Website and Registration

<https://tu-dresden.de/gsw/phil/iso/mak/covidcrisiscarechange>