

GEORG-AUGUST-UNIVERSITÄT
GÖTTINGEN

Centre for Modern Indian Studies Summer Colloquium 2015

© Rupa Viswanath

Wednesdays 4:15 – 5:45pm

CeMIS Board Room 2.112

Waldweg 26 (2nd Floor)

(unless noted otherwise)

15 April: Race and Caste: From Analytics of Power to Theories of Value, and Back Again

Dr. Nathaniel Roberts, MPI-MMG, Göttingen

22 April: Governing India's Land: Sub-national Perspectives

Dr. Nikita Sud, University of Oxford

29 April: Genealogies of Equality: Dalit Engagement with Liberalism in Colonial North India

Prof. Ram Rawat, University of Delaware/University of Cambridge

6 May: Theologies of Protection: Deshi Mafias and the 'Offer One Can't Refuse'

Prof. Lucia Michelutti, University College London

11 May (Monday!): Challenging Normalised Exclusion: Humour and Hopeful Rationality in Dalit Politics

Dr. Suryakant Waghmore, DAAD Visiting Professor, CeMIS

May 20: Global Justice, Capabilities Approach, and Commercial Surrogacy in India

Dr. Sheela Saravanan, Lichtenberg Kolleg, Göttingen

May 26 (Tuesday!): How to Crush a Reactor? Anti-Nuclear Movements, the 'Foreign Hand' and Transnational (Dis)Connectivities

Prof. Raminder Kaur Kahlon, University of Sussex

3 June: Past or Present? The New Grammar of Caste in Contemporary India

Prof. Ashwini Deshpande, Delhi School of Economics

10 June: Mapping Emotions, Constructing Feelings: Delhi in the 1840s

Prof. Margrit Pernau, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin

17 June: Can the Revolution be Legalized?: The Contradictions of Law and Social Transformation in India

Dr. Sandipto Dasgupta, Kings College

24 June: Pirate copying, Jugaad economics: Postcolonial Technologies and Developmental Leapfrogging

Prof. Kavita Philip, Dept of History, UC Irvine

1 July: Fences and Neighbors: South Asian Studies and Religious Studies

Prof. Robert Yelle, University of Munich

8 July: Mrs Gandhi's Buried Treasure: "Economic Offenders" in Emergency India

Dr. Patrick Clibbens, University of Oxford

15 July: The Politics of the Poor: Negotiating Democracy in Eastern India

Dr. Indrajit Roy, University of Oxford